Participating in more of the addressable market in 2007

Competed for about 80% of available dollars in 2006 in state new adoption market
• 25% share of market in which we competed
• 20% share of total available state new adoption market; well below our usual capture rate of 30%

2007: Timed new products to pursue bigger growth opportunities

Science
• New elementary and secondary programs have been customized for major adoption states

Real Math
• Skills-oriented elementary program well positioned for more growth in 2007 in open territories and adoption states

Everyday Mathematics
• Extending this best-selling K-6 program into secondary grades with new program in 2007

2007: Timed new products to pursue bigger growth opportunities

Reading with Purpose, The Reader’s Choice
• Early success in 2006 open territory market; expected to be competitive in 2007 state new adoption market

Treasures
• New basal reading program will build on good start in open territory during 2006

2007: Timed new products to pursue bigger growth opportunities

Enhancing, expanding reading and math products for fast-growing intervention market
• Adding middle school components to successful Number Worlds, Kaleidoscope
• Piloted Jamestown Reading Navigator, for grades 6-12, to more than 100,000 students in 2006

Stronger organization to compete in core basal market

Combined our elementary and secondary basal publishing groups last year
• Reorganization is complete

Streamline improves:
• Sharing of resources
• Delivery of competitive pre-K–12 solutions
• Cost efficiencies from product development through sales and marketing
• Growth of our top line

Publishing for the opportunity: Competing with a spectrum of products

Reading
Progressive Balanced Basal Skills-Based
Math
Technology investments to improve testing

Investments will lead to increased efficiency

New investments to improve penetration of rapidly growing formative market
• Educators looking for ways to monitor and diagnose classroom progress
• Our online formative program is customized to meet state standards
• Encouraged by initial response

Expect more improvement in 2007 from HPI Group

Higher Education and Professional products grew both here and abroad
• Strong finish in international, professional markets

4Q performance in U.S. college market softened
• Only Business and Economics showed gain
• Science, Engineering and Math had solid growth for the year

2006 U.S. college, university market grew about 3%
2007: Expect market to grow about 4%
• International higher ed market expected to grow faster

New growth from digital products

Homework Manager gaining traction in college, university market

Introduced 40 new online courses in 2006
• Should have positive impact in 2007
• Online courses are CODIE Award finalists
  -- "Best Education Solution"
  -- "Best Postsecondary Course and Content Management Solution"

New growth from digital products

Adding to lineup of digital products for medical professionals
• Access Medicine: Now in more than 42 countries and virtually all U.S. medical schools

• More specialties to follow

All are subscription products that sell on a global scale

Outlook for McGraw-Hill Education

Summary
• Improved prospects in a growing elementary-high school market in 2007
• Robust state new adoption market starting in 2007
• A growing spectrum of products to serve diverse el-hi market
• Growing global growth prospects in higher education and professional markets
• More growth in digital products as convergence of technology and content increases addressable market
• Margin expansion in 2007
Financial Services finished 2006 on an upswing

4Q revenue improved 22.1%
• Impressive since hot U.S. residential mortgage-backed securities market started cooling off in 2006

Good pipeline to start 2007

Financial Services

2006 segment results
Revenue +14.4% to $2.7 billion
+19.4% on a non-GAAP basis
Reflecting sale of Corporate Value Consulting in September 2005

Operating profit +18.0% to $1.2 billion
Reflects $30.0 million for incremental stock-based compensation and a one-time charge for elimination of restoration stock option program

Operating margin 43.8%, up from 42.5% in 2005

Why Financial Services set new records in 2006

Solid growth in equity and fixed income information products and services produced new records for revenue, operating profit and operating margins

Solid contributions from:
• Rating services
• Data and information products
• Index services

How a diversified and resilient portfolio delivers results

Not dependent on any single product or asset class

Ratings grew solidly domestically and abroad
• Share of revenue from international ratings topped 40% mark for first time in S&P’s history
  – 41.8% for 4Q 2006 vs. 38.4% for 4Q 2005
  – 38.6% for 2006 vs. 37.0% for 2005

How a diversified and resilient portfolio delivers results

Structured finance continues to be strong driver

Performance in 4Q primarily attributable to growth in collateralized debt obligations and commercial mortgage-backed securities
• CDO market:
  – Strong investor demand in cash flow and synthetic sectors
  – Increases in collateralized loan obligations

2006 ninth straight year that S&P rated more asset-and mortgage-backed securities than any other agency according to Asset-Backed Alert newsletter
• Measured by ratings of dollar volume issuance and number of deals

How a diversified and resilient portfolio delivers results

Corporate market: S&P benefited from substantial pick up in fourth quarter

Public finance: Finished the year strongly
How a diversified and resilient portfolio delivers results

Market strong for ratings and services not directly tied to new issuance

- 24.5% of ratings in fourth quarter and 23.9% for 2006

2007: We expect revenue to increase again for this area

- Bank loan ratings, counterparty credit ratings, financial strength ratings and credit estimates will lead the growth

Expectations for new issuance dollar volume in 2007

- Expect growth in all asset classes except U.S. residential mortgage-backed securities

- U.S. RMBS issuance will probably decline around 10-15%

- International growth strong again in 2007

- All regions expected to produce increases for year

Reduced dependence on transaction revenue

Frequent issuer and surveillance programs have grown

- Measure of success is unearned revenue

- Corporation’s unearned revenue grew by more than 15% in 2006 to $983.2 million

- Growth primarily attributable to Financial Services’ ratings products

Continuing to leverage index products and services

- $161.2 billion in assets under management in ETFs based on S&P indices in 2006

- 19.3% increase compared to 2005

- 4Q: 10 new ETFs based on S&P indices were introduced

- Brings 2006’s total to 35 new ETFs

- 87 ETFs worldwide now using S&P indices

- Anticipate 13 more to be launched in 1Q 2007
Continuing global demand for equity and fixed income information

Capital IQ has more than doubled client base to over 1,700 since acquisition
Continues to enhance its offerings
Pleased with progress at Capital IQ

Outlook for Financial Services

Summary
• Continued strength in ratings
• Solid growth in international markets
• Excellent growth in data and information and indexes
• Another year of double-digit top- and bottom-line growth in 2007
• Margin expansion

$14.1 million for incremental stock-based compensation and a one-time charge for the elimination of the restoration stock option program $8.7 million in restructuring charges for employee severance costs for approximately 150 positions
A change in revenue recognition for transformation of Sweets
$8.3 million benefit following favorable resolution of disputed billings
Impact of eliminating BusinessWeek’s European and Asia editions
Operating margin 5.1%

Advertising was mixed in 2006

Broadcasting
• Political advertising very strong in 4Q and for 2006
  – Produced more than $16.8 million in political advertising in 2006
• Gains in political advertising offset by loss of Monday Night Football at ABC affiliates and decision not to renew Oprah Winfrey show in San Diego and Denver markets
• 2006 revenue increased 7.5% to $120.6 million and 4Q revenue increased 3.5% to $33.6 million

Advertising was mixed in 2006

BusinessWeek.com grew 45.7% off a small base in 2006
• Looking for more growth in 2007
BusinessWeek ad pages virtually flat in 2006; up 1.6% in 4Q
• We expect some improvement this year
Advertising was mixed in 2006

Advertising contributed slightly less to corporation’s total revenue in 2006 vs. 2005
• 2006: 5.3%
• 2005: 5.6%

The transformation of Information & Media

Expect information products and services to drive improvement in segment
Delivering higher value-added information to readers and advertisers by focusing on:
• News and information in text, audio, video
• Data and analytics; workflow tools and services
• Search advertising and lead generation
• Online community portals, producing user-generated content

The transformation of Information & Media

Construction will benefit from pick up in Sweets revenue for bundled print and online service
• Revenue will be recognized as earned in 2007
A significant transformation of a 100-year-old service

J.D. Power poised for global expansion

Solid gain in 4Q 2006
• Poised for another good year in 2007
Seeing strength in non-auto segment
• Financial services and insurance
• Real Estate
• Construction

J.D. Power and Associates: Expanding global automotive business

Regional light vehicle sales growth (Cumulative growth from 2006 to 2013)

- European Union: 30%
- Asia Pacific: 59%
- North America: 9%
- Rest of World: 23%

Average Worldwide Growth Rate: 28%

- 2006: Average price of $54.23, totaling approximately $1.5 billion, for 28.4 million shares
  - 20 million shares remain from the 45 million share repurchase program approved in 2006

Reduced fully-diluted weighted average shares outstanding (WASO)

- 2006: 366.9 million shares
  - 15.7 million share decrease compared to full-year 2005
  - Decrease primarily driven by weighted impact of 28.4 million shares repurchased in 2006
  - Partially offset by stock option activity and 31.7% increase in stock price in 2006
- 4Q WASO increased 3.2 million vs. 3Q 2006
  - Increase influenced by:
    - 17% increase in stock price
    - Increased option exercise activity
    - No share repurchases in 3Q 2006

Outlook for interest expense

- 2006: $13.6 million net interest expense
  - 4Q 2006: Declined to $70,000 as interest income on investments from excess cash balances offset fixed components
- 2007: Expected to increase to $16-18 million
  - Increase due to beginning 2007 with $395.3 million less in cash
  - Includes same fixed items as 2006; largest item is approximately $9 million for accounting for Rock-McGraw sale-leaseback transaction

Analyzing 2006-05 earnings

- $2.40 per share for 2006 includes:
  - $0.04 one-time charge for elimination of restoration stock option program
  - $0.11 for incremental stock-based compensation
  - $0.06 for restructuring for elimination of approximately 700 positions
    - Total restructuring: $31.5 million
- $2.21 per share for 2005 includes:
  - $0.04 for restructuring
  - $0.03 increase in income taxes on repatriation of funds

  - $0.01 for incremental stock-based compensation
  - $0.03 for restructuring for positions eliminated in 4Q
  - $0.04 impact of change in revenue recognition for transformation of Sweets
- $0.50 per share for 4Q 2005 includes:
  - $0.04 for restructuring
  - $0.03 increase in income taxes on repatriation of funds

Revenue recognition and transformation of Sweets

- Transformed Sweets print catalog business into bundled print and online service
  - Subscription revenue recognized over life of contract period rather than in December when standalone print product was delivered
- Impact on 4Q 2006
  - Reduced revenue by $23.8 million
  - Reduced operating profit by $21.1 million, or $0.04 per share
- Benefits in 2007
Impact of incremental stock-based compensation

2006: $85.1 million incremental stock-based compensation represents:
• $0.11 per share for incremental expense
• $0.04 per share one-time charge for elimination of restoration stock option program

Impact of incremental stock-based compensation

McGraw-Hill Education
• $19.6 million for stock-based compensation
• Includes $4.2 million for one-time charge

Financial Services
• $30.0 million for stock-based compensation
• Includes $2.1 million for one-time charge

Information & Media
• $14.1 million for stock-based compensation
• Includes $2.7 million for one-time charge

Corporate
• $21.4 million for stock-based compensation
• Includes $14.7 million for one-time charge

Corporate expenses

2006: Increased $38 million to $162.8 million. Includes:
• $21.4 million incremental stock-based compensation
• $6.8 million of restructuring charges in 2006 vs. $2.8 million in 2005

2004 and 2005 acquisitions cash positive in 2007

2006: $0.05 dilution from acquisitions
2007: Expect these acquisitions to be cash positive

No material acquisitions or dispositions in 2006

Outlook for tax rate

4Q 2006: Effective tax rate 37.2%
2006: Effective tax rate 37.2%
2007: Expect rate to be approximately the same as 2006 on full-year basis

Increasing pre-publication investments

4Q 2006: $87.5 million
2006: $276.8 million, a $19.0 million increase vs. prior year
• Lower than initial projections due to timing and some efficiencies from our Global Resource Management program
2007: Expect $330 million to realize significant opportunities in el-hi market in 2007 through 2009
Growth in capital expenditures for property and equipment

2006: $126.6 million, $6.4 million increase vs. prior year
  – Shifted timing of expenditures to 2007:
    – Construction of new data center
    – Implementation of digital technology initiatives
2007: Expect $250 million, an increase of $123.4 million vs. prior year

Outlook for non-cash charges

Depreciation
• 2006: $113.2 million
• 2007: Expect $130 million, reflecting higher level of capital expenditures in 2007 and full year of depreciation from 2006 capital expenditures

Outlook for non-cash charges

Amortization of pre-publication costs
• 2006: $228.4 million
• 2007: Expect $260 million as a result of new el-hi programs being developed to take advantage of the strong adoption opportunities

Outlook for non-cash charges

Amortization of intangibles
• 2006: $48.4 million
• 2007: Expect $50 million
  – Virtually flat compared to 2006
