Comparison of adjusted information to U.S. GAAP information

This presentation includes adjusted financial measures that are derived from the Company's continuing operations. This non-GAAP information is provided in order to allow investors to make meaningful comparisons of the Company's operating performance between periods and to view the Company's business from the same perspective as Company management.

The Company's earnings release dated October 25, 2018 contains exhibits that reconcile the differences between the non-GAAP measures and comparable financial measures calculated in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Such exhibits are available on the Company's website at http://investor.spglobal.com/quarterly-earnings.
“Safe Harbor” statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This presentation contains “forward-looking statements,” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements, which express management’s current views concerning future events, trends, contingencies or results, appear at various places in this report and use words like “anticipate,” “assume,” “believe,” “continue,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “goal,” “indicate,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “objective,” “plan,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “prospect,” “strategy,” “target,” “view,” “will” and similar terms, and future or conditional tense verbs like “could,” “may,” “might,” “should,” “will” and “would.” For example, management may use forward-looking statements when addressing topics such as: the outcome of contingencies; future actions by regulators; changes in the Company’s business strategies and methods of generating revenue; the development and performance of the Company’s services and products; the expected impact of acquisitions and dispositions; the Company’s effective tax rate; and the Company’s cost structure, dividend policy, cash flows or liquidity.

Forward-looking statements are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements include, among other things:

- the impact of the recent acquisition of Kensho, including the impact on the Company’s results of operations, any failure to successfully integrate Kensho into the Company’s operations, and any failure to attract and retain key employees; the risk of litigation, unexpected costs, charges or expenses relating to the acquisition;
- risks associated with the integration of Kensho, including risks that may result from regulatory, legal or other challenges associated with the acquisition;
- the rapidly evolving regulatory environment, in Europe, the United States and elsewhere, affecting Ratings, S&P Global Platts, indices, and S&P Global Market Intelligence, including new and amended regulations and the Company’s compliance therewith;
- our ability to make acquisitions and dispositions and successfully integrate the businesses we acquire;
- the outcome of litigation, government and regulatory proceedings, investigations and inquiries;
- the health of debt and equity markets, including credit quality and spreads, the level of interest rates and future debt issuance, and the potentially adverse impact of increased access to cash resulting from the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act;
- the demand and supply for credit ratings in the global capital markets,
- the exposure of the Company and its subsidiaries to potential criminal sanctions or civil penalties if they fail to comply with anti-corruption laws such as the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the United Kingdom’s Bribery Act 2010, and the impact of the United Kingdom’s departure from the European Union, and the impact of the United Kingdom’s departure on our credit rating activities and other European and United Kingdom offerings;
- changes in applicable tax or accounting requirements;
- guidance and information regarding the implementation of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act;
- the level of the Company’s future cash flows and capital investments;
- the impact on the Company’s revenue and net income caused by fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; and
- the Company’s exposure to potential operational, business, legal, regulatory, and financial risks associated with recent changes to the tax laws and regulations that are applicable to the domestic and international jurisdictions in which it operates, including sanctions laws relating to countries such as Iran, Russia, Sudan and Syria, anti-corruption laws such as the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act of 2010, and local laws prohibiting corrupt payments to government officials, as well as import and export restrictions.

The forward-looking statements referenced in this report are made as of the date hereof and are based on the Company’s current expectations and are subject to change. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You should not assume that the statements in this report will remain true at any future time. Further information about the Company’s businesses, including information about factors that could materially affect its results of operations and financial condition, is contained in the Company’s filings with the SEC, including the “Risk Factors” section in the Company’s most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K.
