Comparison of Adjusted Information to U.S. GAAP Information

This presentation includes adjusted operating income (loss) information. This information is provided to enable investors to make meaningful comparisons of the Company’s operating performance between periods and to view the Company’s business from the same perspective as management’s.

Slide 46 of this presentation contains an exhibit that reconciles the differences between the non-GAAP measures and comparable financial measures calculated in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
Forward-Looking Statements

The forward-looking statements in this Growth and Value Plan (identified by the future tense and words like “expects,” “targeted” and “projected”) involve risks and uncertainties, are subject to change, and actual results may differ materially from the Company’s expectations, based on various important factors, including worldwide economic, financial, liquidity, political and regulatory conditions; the health of debt (including U.S. residential mortgage-backed securities and collateralized debt obligations), equity and commodities markets, including possible future interest rate changes; the health of the economy and in advertising; the level of expenditures and state new adoptions and open territory sales in the education market; the successful marketing of competitive products; and the effect of competitive products and pricing. Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in McGraw Hill’s 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K which, along with the Company’s other filings with the SEC, are available on the SEC’s website (www.sec.gov).

Summary of the Growth and Value Plan

• As part of a comprehensive strategic portfolio review focused on shareholder value, McGraw-Hill’s Board of Directors has previously announced acquisitions, intended divestitures, an increased share repurchase authorization and a review of G&A costs.

• Today, The McGraw-Hill Companies’ Board of Directors announces its Growth and Value Plan to:

  1. Create two powerful public companies:
     • McGraw-Hill “Markets”: primarily focused on global capital and commodities markets
     • McGraw-Hill Education: the second-largest education company worldwide

  2. Reduce costs to ensure efficient operating structures for the two companies

  3. Step up the pace of the share repurchase program with $240 million thus far in Q3 ($541 million YTD), targeting $1 billion by the end of 2011

• A tax-free spin-off of McGraw-Hill Education to shareholders is expected to be completed by the end of 2012.

• The Growth and Value Plan will result in two independent companies with:
  – World-class franchises, iconic brands and strong market positions
  – The scale, financial flexibility and management to capitalize on these strengths

* Working title
Two Focused Global Leaders

McGraw-Hill Markets
A leading provider of content and analytics to the capital and commodities markets, delivering integrated solutions across all asset classes through iconic brands with overlapping customer bases and interconnected markets

McGraw-Hill Education
The second-largest global education company, capitalizing on digital, global and education services growth opportunities
Benefits of the Growth and Value Plan

• Creates two focused and nimble operating companies with:
  – Deeper engagement with customers
  – Right-sized and aligned cost structures
  – Focused management accountability
  – Competitive infrastructure and capabilities

• Enhances strategic and financial flexibility
  – Tailored capital structures and financial policies
  – Two attractive equity currencies

• Results in two “pure-play” investment opportunities
  – Similar growth and return on capital profiles
  – Expanding investor base

Next Steps

• We are in the midst of an extensive cost reduction program
  – Initial scope is corporate expense, administrative and technology costs across the organization
  – Represents over $1 billion in current costs
  – Need to disaggregate shared services and establish two appropriately sized corporate centers

• The separation will require:
  – Capital structure and dividend policy
  – Identification of leadership teams
  – SEC and other regulatory filings
  – IRS tax ruling
  – Final approval by Board of Directors

• The two new companies are expected to be launched by the end of 2012

Summary of the Growth and Value Plan

Results of the Portfolio Review

- Organizational structure: the creation of the MH Financial segment, to accelerate focus and leadership attention on growth

- Exit of non-core assets: the planned divestiture of the Broadcasting Group

- Commitment to expand Platts’ global growth platform
  - BENTEK Energy (natural gas)
  - Steel Business Briefing

- Efficient balance sheet management
  - New share repurchase authorization of 50 million shares, 17% of shares outstanding

- Initiation of a G&A review

Growth and Value Plan

1. Create two powerful public companies:
   - McGraw-Hill Markets: primarily focused on the global capital and commodities markets
   - McGraw-Hill Education: the second-largest education company worldwide

2. Reduce costs to ensure efficient operating structures for the two companies

3. Step up pace of share repurchase program targeting $1 billion by the end of 2011

The Board has considered the views of our shareholders and has concluded that this Plan will result in greater shareholder value, with less risk and complexity than other alternatives.
